THE SENIOR CLASS
of
W. R. ODELL HIGH SCHOOL
CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA
presents . . .

THE ODELL MILESTONES
OF 1964

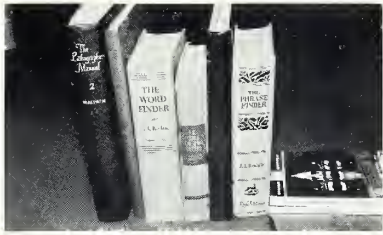

. . . with our attention directed to our future years - our future plans, hopes, dreams.
But in years to come our attention may be reverted to our past years. With this recorded memory, we may relive forgotten moments, revive pleasant memories and friendships.
Within this book, "Our Year Unfolds" . . . and folds.

SENIOR STATISTICS

CLASS POEM

As Seniors, we walk these halls our last time
For yesterday's care-free hours we are yearning.
These halls are now precious memories that shine
In our hearts like flames of friendship, ever burning.

When first we came to Odell to be led,
We were like children in the dark of day,
Unsure and afraid of the road ahead,
We were led by teachers who lighted the way.

We remember the years and friends, so dear.
We look back and wonder where the years have gone,
As to each Senior's eye there comes a tear,
For we know we'll soon be parting from home.

The world is waiting and we are ready;
Ready for the challenge that's before us.
We've had good leaders, sincere and steady
Who prepared us for the world that awaits us.

Our time has come and we as Seniors stand,
With our heads high and our outlooks bright,
As the future leaders of our great land.
Tomorrow is ours; we are the light.

Yes, we are the light, the future we hold.
We are the hope for brighter years ahead.
Tomorrow is for us to shape and to mold.
We must stand true for our land must be led.

With God as our loving, unfailing guide,
We look to the future with these thoughts of gold
That whatever may come, in Him we confide;
We will always have His hand to hold.

We are ready to stand the unending test.
Will we remain strong in times that are rough?
We can promise only to do our best.
The world will judge if our best is enough.

CLASS MOTTO
Our greatest glory is not in never failing,
But rising every time we do.

CLASS HISTORY

In August, 1952, many little frustrated boys and girls wandered around the school halls for their very first time. Some were crying and some were laughing and all were making new friends. We had made one important step in our lives. Through our primary and elementary grades we continued growing and maturing.

Finally in August, 1960, 64 frustrated young people entered the halls for their first year of high school. At our first class meeting we elected officers under the leadership of Miss Mary Niblock and Mr. Max Lippard. Our officers were Larry Smith, president; Butch Farthing, vice-president; Judy Cope, secretary-treasurer; and Dianne Goodnight, reporter. Judy Cope, was chosen as Miss Freshman and Larry Smith as Mr. Freshman. Frances Stegall and Janet Hopkins were chosen for varsity cheerleaders by the Monogram Club. Three of our girls were named to the varsity basketball team; two of these were lettered into the Monogram Club at the end of the year.

When we became sophomores, there were only 61 of us; all of whom were less frustrated and more settled. This year we were guided by Mrs. Augusta Stough and Mr. Ted Bechtler. For our officers we elected Butch Farthing, president; Linda Brown, vice-president; Brenda Fisher, secretary-treasurer; and Judy Cope, reporter. Linda Brown and Johnny Johnson were chosen to represent our class as Miss and Mr. Sophomore. This year 26 sophomores were accepted into the Future Teachers of America Club. Eight girls and eight boys were selected by the juniors to serve as waitresses and waiters for their Junior-Senior Banquet. Those chosen included Linda Brown, Janice Laney, Frances Stegall, Janet Hopkins, Judy Cope, Gail Smith, Jean Baucom, Helen Irvin, Jimmy Cook, Frank Phillips, Butch Farthing, Ted Barbee, Larry Smith, Tommy Shepherd, Richard Smith, and Bobby Linn. Six girls and one boy were on the basketball teams.

Then, in May, 1962, the first half of our treasured high school years had been completed and we were looking forward to the last half more and more.

As August arrived, 55 juniors also arrived to begin our busy year. With Mrs. Lucille Daniel and Mrs. Janet Goldiere as sponsors, we elected Butch Farthing to head our class as president. The other officers were Brenda Fisher, vice-president; Gail Smith, secretary; Judy Cope, treasurer; and Paulette Hill, reporter. Shortly before Thanksgiving, 16 new members were tapped into the Beta Club. Those tapped were Sue Almon, Linda Brown, Jean Baucom, Leilani Childress, Judy Cope, Brenda Fisher, Dianne Goodnight, Janet Hopkins, Judy Kiser, Janice Laney, Brenda Penninger, Sue Riley, Gail Smith, Frances Stegall, Sue Tilley, and Ellen Wilkinson.

A very busy time in our junior year came when we began our junior play. We chose "Off the Track" with a cast of 13. Under the direction of Mrs. Janet Goldiere and Sue Tilley, assistant, the following made up the cast: Jerry Duckett, Sue Riley, Dianne Goodnight, Judy Kiser, Tommy Shepherd, Brenda Penninger, Wayne Eudy, Ellen Wilkinson, Frank Phillips, Butch Farthing, Janice Laney, Janet Hopkins, and Gail Smith.

Brenda Fisher and Larry Smith were chosen as Miss and Mr. Junior. Gail Smith was selected as our Junior Miss Hi Miss. This year two girls and two boys were on the basketball teams to represent the Junior class. To assist with the graduating exercises, seven marshals were selected. Brenda Penninger served as chief with Janice Laney, Janet Hopkins, Judy Cope, Linda Brown, Frances Stegall, and Jean Baucom assisting. To end our fun-filled year as juniors, we honored our seniors with a lovely banquet. The theme was "Apple Blossom Time".

After much preparation in our previous three years of high school, we were ready to settle down for our last. There were 52 seniors to be under the guidance of Mrs. Mary Cooke and Mr. E. Ray Jarvis. The officers to lead us through our last year were Larry Smith, president; Dennie Crowe, vice-president; Janice Laney, secretary; Linda Brown, treasurer; and Brenda Penninger, reporter. Work was immediately begun on the annual and newspaper. At the close of our junior year, Brenda Fisher and Judy Cope were chosen as editor and co-editor of the annual and Frances Stegall and Butch Farthing were selected as business managers. Frances Stegall was chosen as editor of the ODELL NEWSSETTE.

During the first part of our senior year, the remainder of the two staffs were elected. Those chosen for the annual staff were Judy Kiser and Ted Barbee, circulation managers. Mrs. Mary Cooke was our sponsor for the annual. Those chosen for the newspaper staff were Janice Laney, feature editor; Brenda Penninger, girls' sports editor; Tommy Shepherd, boys' sports editor; and Dennie Crowe, circulation manager. Mr. Max Lippard was our sponsor for the newspaper.

This year Janet Hopkins and Frances Stegall were named co-captains of the cheerleading squad and Sue Almon and Brenda Penninger were chosen as co-captains of the girls' basketball team. Brenda Fisher was selected as Miss DAR and was awarded the "Good Citizenship Award". Linda Brown was chosen Miss Merry Christmas by the student body. The Queen's Court consisted of Brenda Fisher, Vickie Dick, Janice Laney, Jean Baucom, and Gail Smith.

To prepare for our graduation exercises, we chose Amy Baucom and Ricky Crowe for our mascots. For the class night exercises the following people were selected to carry out the different duties: Janice Laney, class poet; Brenda Penninger and Dennie Crowe, historians; Dianne Goodnight and Larry Smith, prophets; Linda Brown and Tommy Shepherd, giftorians; Frances Stegall and Jimmy Cook, lawyers; Jean Baucom and Wayne Eudy, directors; and Judy Kiser and Richard Smith, special page editors.

CLASS GIFTORY

MISS AMY BAUCOM and RICKY CROWE, we offer to you, our mascots, these tokens of our appreciation for your patience and cooperation.

MR. MITCHELL, we give you this pair of squeaky shoes so the underclassmen will not have as hard of a time with their misbehavior as we have had.

MRS. COOKE, for you, we have some more patience because we know we have tried yours too much and too many times.

MR. JARVIS, we give you an umbrella so it won't rain in your nose.

SUE ALMON, we give you these knee pads to remind you of all the basketball games you have played in during your four high school years.

TEDDY BARBEE, we give you this cow to remind you of all the times you had to do your milking before going somewhere.

JEAN BAUCOM, we give you a book entitled "Rough and Rowdy" since you are always so quiet and mannerly.

CLIFFORD BLACKWELDER, here is a bottle of peroxide so you can always keep your blond hair.

LINDA BROWN, here is an aspirin to remind you of the headache you had writing the Giftory.

JOHN CARRIKER, we give you a Hercules Muscle-Building Kit so Eddy Cline will quit picking on you.

BOYCE CHAPMAN, we give you a driver's license. Hide them so they can't be taken away from you.

LEILANI CHILDRESS, we give you a big piece of tape to cover your mouth so Tommy Durgin can stop complaining about you talking all the time.

KEITH CLARK, since you like school so well, we give you a picture of Odell.

EDDY CLINE, we give you a new agriculture teacher to replace the old one you've worn out.

JIMMY COOK, we give you this copy of MACBETH since you enjoyed it so much.

JUDY COPE, here is a make-up kit so you can continue to stay pretty always.

DENNIE CROWE, we give you this compass since you love Geometry so well.

VICKIE DICK, we give you this typing eraser to remind you of all the ones you have worn out taking typing.

TOMMY DURGIN, we give you one of Mrs. Cooke's erasers so you will have a good start in your profession as a professional board eraser.

STEPHANIE EMERSON, here is a medal for being such a "lucky" driver.

WAYNE EUDY, here is an old play book to remind you of your part in the Junior Play. We hope you get a better role in real life.

BUTCH FARTHING, here is a pencil and straight-edge to aid you in your future job as a designer.

BRENDA FISHER, we give you a pair of roller skates to remind you of your tight schedule as editor of the annual.

BARBARA FREEZE, we give you a pair of hard-bottomed shoes so they won't wear out when you're twisting.

DIANNE GOODNIGHT, here is Glen Daniel's old Ford to remind you of the Food Store in Morganton you visited on route to the Beta Club Convention.

GARRY GUFFEY, we give you a bottle of "No-Doze" pills because you have such a hard time keeping awake in Psychology.

NANCY HARTSELL, we give you a band to match that diamond you already have.

JIMMY HAYER, we give you a wock to throw at a wabbit.

JANIE HEGLAR, here is a log chain to tie down your car so people won't walk off with it.

LANCE HEGLER, here is a bill for all the damage you caused in Agriculture during your last four years.

PAULETTE HILL, here is a bell for you to ring so we can tell when you are around since you are so quiet.

JANET HOPKINS, here is a portable gas tank so you can get home if you run out of gas while riding around at the "What-a-Burger".

HELEN IRVIN, we give you something for your hope chest since you enjoy collecting things for it so much.

RICKY JOHNSTON, we give you these curlers so you can keep your pretty curls.

JUDY KISER, we are giving you a muffler to keep you a little quieter.

JANICE LANEY, we give you a book of rhyming words to help you write your poems.

BOBBY LINN, here is a chauffeur to carry Steve around so you won't have to do it all the time.

JOE LITTLE, we give you a megaphone so you can be heard ---if you ever decide to say anything.

JERRY MARLOWE, we give you these shoes so you can follow in your brother's footsteps.

DEWEY MESIMER, we give you a car of your own so you won't have to ride with Joe and be late all the time.

JOE MESIMER, we give you a tardy slip so you will remember all the times that you had to go to the office to get one.

BRENDA PENNINGER, for you, we have a cast to remind you of the time you broke your leg playing basketball.

FRANK PHILLIPS, we give you a dozen E strings for your guitar to replace the ones Butch has borrowed.

MIKE PLESS, we give you a brand new '51 Chevy to replace your old broken down '50.

RALPH POSTON, here is a song book since you are the only boy in the Senior Class who sings.

SUE COLLINS RILEY, we give you a cook book so you can learn to cook for E.K.

PATSY ROGERS, we give you a bell so you and Paulette can make noise together.

TOMMY SHEPHERD, we give you a can of white paint to paint your water skis for this summer.

SHARON SHOWMAR, we give you this black rinse so your hair will always stay black.

GAIL SMITH, we give you this joke book so you will never run out of witty things to say.

LARRY SMITH, we give you this gavel to remind you of what a good job you did as class president.

RICHARD SMITH, here is a fragment of your old Economics notebook. Does it bring back memories?

FRANCES STEGALL, we give you this Odell Newsette to remind you of the good job you have done on the paper as editor.

SUE TILLEY, here is a new father so you can drive the way you want to.

ELLEN WILKINSON, we give you this little black bag since you want to be a doctor.

RITA DAVIS WINCHESTER, we give you a comb and brush so you can always fix hair.

CLASS PROPHECY

As principal of Odell High School, I hear of most of the comings and goings in the community. Since it was the week of several large conventions being held in this area two of my teachers, BRENDA PENNINGER and JUDY KISER, and I decided to arrange a class reunion. Fifteen years is a long time to keep a record of fifty-two people and we acknowledged the fact more and more as we began trying to contact each member. We employed the help of EDDY CLINE, Blake Allen's agricultural assistant.

We had no trouble finding TOMMY DURGIN, the renowned professional cheerleader during basketball season.

We had a little trouble getting to JOHN CARRIKER, who is a famous comedian and VICKIE DICK a beautiful fashion model because their press secretaries protect them so profusely.

WAYNE EUDY, the basketball coach at the University of North Carolina, agreed to help us. He promised he would use the University's vast research facilities to help us track down some of our members.

It was Brenda's job to get in touch with everyone still living in the community. LEILANI CHILDRESS, SUE RILEY, STEPHANIE EMERSON, and PATSY ROGERS agreed to help Brenda write the invitations while their children were at school.

RICHARD SMITH, the manager of one of the drug stores in DIANNE GOODNIGHT'S vast chain of stores, informed us that Dianne would be visiting Concord soon.

RICKY JOHNSTON, one of the world's foremost race drivers, and two of his mechanics, JIMMY HAYER and LANCE HEGLAR, will be in Charlotte soon for a big race.

The National Secretary's Convention will bring many of our classmates home. JUDY COPE, the private secretary to an executive is flying into Charlotte next week with her switch board operator, JANET HOPKINS. FRANCES STEGALL, the secretary to the editor of Harper's Magazine, BRENDA FISHER, will be here for the convention.

LINDA BROWN and JEAN BAUCOM, medical missionaries, are traveling to India with the very famous heart surgeon, ELLEN WILKINSON, her nurse, NANCY HARTSELL, and the great minister, GARRY GUFFEY.

FRANK PHILLIPS, one of Arthur Smith's Crackerjacks, promised to entertain us at the reunion. GAIL SMITH will bring some of the students from her school of baton to entertain us, also. JANICE LANEY, the world's greatest poetess, will read us several selections from her latest poems. BOYCE CHAPMAN will leave his seat in the New York Philharmonic Orchestra to play his famed French horn at our reunion. BARBARA FREEZE, who is now the director of two Arthur Murray Studios of Dancing, will present to us several new steps.

JIMMY COOK, the owner of Cook's Photography Studio, will make the pictures for us.

DEWEY AND JOE MESIMER and JERRY MARLOW hope to be able to leave their vast farming operations long enough to attend.

SUE ALMON, the first woman coach for the Harlem Globetrotters and HELEN IRVIN, the first woman speed boat driving champion, will return home after touring with the Freedom for Women Association.

CLIFFORD BLACKWELDER, Mr. America of 1966, will be unable to attend because his first picture will have its world premier the same night as the reunion.

TEDDY BARBEE, a general in the Army, will be unable to leave his post for the reunion because of a recent crisis.

TOMMY SHEPHERD departs next month for an African safari and also regrets that he will be unable to attend.

JANIE HEGLAR and RITA WINCHESTER, half-owners of The House of Beauty, an exclusive salon in Washington, will be able to attend the reunion while they are in Salisbury for a hair styling convention.

SUE TILLEY and SHARON SHOWMAR will leave their posts as lieutenants in the Navy for a week's leave in order to attend.

BOBBY LINN, the incorruptible captain of the F.B.I., will put aside his searching for KEITH CLARK, Al Capone's successor, just long enough to attend.

RALPH POSTON, president of the Greyhound Bus Lines, and his secretary, PAULETTE HILL, will be able to attend the reunion while they are enroute to Miami for a Convention.

DENNIE CROWE will leave his seas as the president of the board of directors of the A and P Stores.

JOE LITTLE, the owner of Wringley's Company, will be able to attend along with BUTCH FARTHING, who is beginning the plans for one of Joe's new plants. Butch has been the consulting architect for six years. They will be combining business with pleasure.

There is only one problem. Our state Principal's Association meets that night and I will be unable to attend.

Dianne Goodnight
